Footnotes

- 1) Some courses are offered via Distance Learning so the student might be charged the $75 per semester fee.
- 2) Weekend University courses are not offered during the summer. However, in summer, needed classes can be taken through Distance Learning and in classrooms in Newark.

Additional Information

- * The tuition rate is per credit, courses are assumed to be 3 credits.
- The "Per Credit" and "Per Semester" fees include standard University fees such as: Academic Facilities, Student Services, Athletics, Technology Infrastructure, Activities and Health Services. These titles will appear on your official NJIT bursar bill so that you can see that you are not paying any more or any less than typical undergraduate or graduate students. Also, while they may appear unsuitable to your NJIT experience, please be assured that your payment of these fees, under these standard titles, makes it possible for NJIT to provide specialized systems and support to all Extension, Distance Learning, Graduate Certificate and Weekend University Program students.
- * The Distance Learning fee is charged once a semester if you enroll in one or more distance learning classes.
- * The $50 Application fee is charged as follows:
 - For matriculated students - once when the student first enrolls
 - For non-matriculated students - every semester
 - For non-matriculated students enrolled in a certificate program - once when the student first enrolls in the program.
 Please note that you must continue to register in contiguous semesters. If you do not the application fee will be charged again.
