Spurred by an explosion in new medical knowledge and an aging population, the pharmaceutical industry is one of the strongest and most exciting sectors of the economy. The industry requires strong management with specialized knowledge and focused skills to sustain the creation, storage and maintenance of databases of biological information in order to support drug discovery development. The 12-credit graduate certificate in pharmaceutical management prepares students for a leadership role in this highly-regulated industry.

Each stand-alone credential is a milestone in its own right and can be a 12-credit springboard to a matching Masters Degree program at NJIT or elsewhere. The credential can be completed in as little as one academic year of part time study. Many can be studied in whole or in part online. The straightforward and rapid admissions process requires possession of an undergraduate degree with a satisfactory grade point average. A GRE or GMAT score is not a prerequisite. Depending on the program, courses can be taken online, on campus, or at NJIT extension sites around New Jersey.
